Meanwhile, the visitors can visit the Hutongs in this area and find the traditional culture in Beijing.  | Beijing |
| D03 10/8 | Beijing Morning: Visit Badaling Great Wall . ◆ Great Wall is the landmark of China and UNESCO World Heritage Site. Badaling Great Wall , about 60 km northwest of central Beijing, is the first section restored to open to tourists in 1957. Badaling is the most representative and magnificent section of the Ming Great Wall and has been visited by over 500 state leaders and VIPs, including presidents Nixon and Reagan, Prime Minister Thatcher, and Queen Elizabeth II. Afternoon: Visit Badaling Wildlife World . ◆ Badaling Wildlife World , at the foot of the world famous Badaling Great Wall and adjacent to Badaling National Forest Park, is China's largest mountain wildlife attraction. Covering an area of nearly 98 acres, there are ten thousand wild animals of more than one hundred different species in Badaling Wildlife World. Evening: Have dinner (Peking Duck) and visit Nanluoguxiang . ◆ Peking duck is one of the most symbolic dishes of Chinese Cuisine and one of the world's greatest dishes and as much an emblem of Beijing as the Forbidden City or the old hutong lanes. ◆ Nanluoguxiang is the most popular and one of the oldest Hutongs in Beijing with a history of more than 740 years. It looks like a fish bone with a 787m main street (Nanluoguxiang) in the middle and 8 smaller Hutongs on both sides. Here is not only a paradise for foodies and people with curiosity, but also a good place to appreciate Beijing traditional quadrangle courtyard.  | Beijing |
